Sir,

With reference to your No. G. 6133 dated 4th June 1904, I have the honor to state that, on enquiry, I learn from the personal Assistant to the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras, that the Surgeon General's office is not aware of reserve Compounders being employed at District Head Quarters Hospitals and that temporary vacancies are filled in by local arrangements. In this Province, such arrangements are almost impossible. Half trained men have constantly to be sent out to work as Compounders. This practice is exceedingly dangerous and doubtless, lives are lost as a consequence. But till spare hands are sanctioned, there is no other method available.

I have the honor to be,
